

Research Seminar

"Nietzsche and Nazism: The Perplexed Dialectics of Influence"

Delivered by Prof. Steven E. Aschheim

Date: Tuesday, 5 April 2011

Time: 18.15

Venue: Weingreen Museum, Level 5, Arts Building, Trinity College Dublin

Prof. Steven E. Aschheim is Stan Gold Visiting Professor of Jewish Studies, Herzog Centre. Steven E. Aschheim received his M.Sc (Econ) from the London School of Economics, his doctorate from the University of Wisconsin, Madison and has taught Cultural and Intellectual History in the Department of History at the Hebrew University, Jerusalem, since 1982. Recent publications include In Times of Crisis: Essays on European Culture, Germans and Jews, Scholem, Arendt, Klemperer: Intimate Chronicles in Turbulent Times. A collection of essays entitled At the Edges of Liberalism: Junctions of European, German and Jewish History is forthcoming.